More new candidates for places on the Republican state ticket are developing. Gen. Ira J. Bloomfield, of Bloomington, is talked of for attorney general, and Hon. T. T. Fountain, of Duquoin, for lieutenant governor. Any more?

Is it not a waste of time for Republicans to talk about the possibility of carrying this or that southern state next fall? Better look the matter square in the face, and make up your minds that the democratic leaders will not permit any southern state to elect Grant or Blaine or Sherman or Washburne electors, for that will be the fact in the case.

THE BOOM.

Those individuals who have been hoping and praying for the subsidence of the Grant boom will not derive much comfort from the action of the Pennsylvania state convention yesterday, which instructed its fifty-eight delegates to the Chicago convention to vote for Grant, and also to vote as a unit on all questions. This action cannot possibly have any other effect than to give the Grant movement an immense impetus. It will encourage the friends of the ex-president to make greater efforts than ever, and will also have an influence upon the wavering, who invariably prefer to go over to the side which seems to be the winning one. The most bitter anti-Grant man cannot but admit that the result of the Pennsylvania convention has given "the boom" a great boost forward. The vote of the Keystone state is a big item.

The proposition now pending in Congress, to restore Fitz John Porter to the rolls of the army, with back pay amounting to some $75,000, will probably pass that body, inasmuch as the Democratic majority has proved itself so ready to condone treason and reward traitors that it cannot now go back on its record and thereby incur the hostility of the largest wing of the party—those who fought on the side which Porter's treachery did so much to aid. In the loyal North, when officers are to be dispensed, the orators of the Democratic persuasion, and the press of the same trademark, make diligent efforts to convince the people that the organization to which they belong is as loyal to the government as any political party that ever existed. But actions speak louder than words, and the effort to wipe out the record of disloyalty and treachery which was so justly fixed upon Fitz John Porter when the details of his guilt were fresh in the minds of the people, is an insult to every man who "wore the blue," an outrage upon the memory of the patriotic men who died as the result of his treachery, and an indignity to the loyal sentiment of the country which sustained and supported the government in its life and death struggle. For this outrage the Democratic party is to be held responsible; no Republican member of congress will support it.

Thomas L. Murray, who was injured by the fall of a platform at a Republican meeting in Indianapolis in October, 1878, has sued the campaign managers for $5,000 damages.

Pinaforely speaking—according to "M. Quad," of Detroit, "Mr. Davis, Governor of Maine, is a man remarkably plain. He wears a frock coat and knee-made pants, and doesn't like the Conklings or the Camerons or Grants. When he was a lad he served a term, as knock-about boy on a billy farm; he fought in the war by sea and land, and he marched back to Maine looking brave and grand. He marched back to Maine so pompous-like, that now he is the ruler of the Maine armee."

Michigan Notice.
There will be a meeting of the Macomb County Agricultural Board Monday, the 24th instant, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which meeting there will be an election held to fill the vacancies occasioned by the resignation of the president and the vice president elect. All members of the Board are earnestly requested to be present.
By order, J. R. MILLER, Sec.

The Tattooed Princess.

From the London Vanity Fair, January 11.
Prince Edward and Prince George of Wales have been relieving the monotony of their cruise in the Bacchante by a strange freak. It seems that on their appearing one day a short time since on the quarter-deck of the vessel the captain noticed something peculiar about their appearance, and on closer inspection discovered that both the Princes had been tattooed on the side of the nose. The tattoo marks, though plainly to be seen, were small, not being above the eighth of an inch in diameter, and are intended to represent an anchor. Somewhat alarmed and not a little vexed by this discovery, the captain questioned the young Princes as to how the tattooing had been done and who had done it. They, like spirited and honorable boys, absolutely declined to say more than that it had been done with their own consent, and it then transpired that the youngsters of the vessel had all been similarly tattooed for a memorial of their cruise in the vessel, and in order, as they said, that one Bacchante might know another whenever and wherever he might hereafter see him. The notion is an amusing one; yet it is rather absurd to think that we shall have a king of England with an anchor tattooed on his nose. There is no truth in the statement which has been made that the Princess of Wales has been in great distress of mind with regard to this little incident. On the contrary, the Princess treats it as a boyish freak, and on hearing of it for the first time only expressed her surprise that her sons had not themselves written to her anything about it. Lord Napier, of Magdala, who had himself seen the tattoo marks, was able to inform the Princess that they were not in any degree a disfigurement. The Princess takes the matter much less calmly.

The Irish Land System

Chicago Tribune.
The present state of things in Ireland presents some strange anomalies. One-third of the island is in the jaws of famine, and the people of the United States are publicly and privately contributing not less than $100,000 per week to assuage hunger and prevent starvation to death of the landlords' tenant farmers. And, while this inflow of American charity is going on to alleviate distress and avert death, there is an outflow per week of one million dollars' worth of animal and vegetable food of Irish production to pay landlord's rents on the farms equitably and rightfully belonging to the occupiers.
The Irish farmers are actually at this time selling a million dollars' worth of food per week to pay such rents to merciless English landlords, while the benevolent people of America are sending over there $100,000 per week to keep these same farmers from eviction and out of the poor house or pauper's grave! Such is the land system of Ireland, which the London Times, New York Herald, and St. Louis Globe-Democrat don't see any reason or necessity for touching or reforming.
Stop this outflow of a million dollars a week of Irish agricultural food products to pay absentee landlords for the privilege of living in their own country, and the Irish people would want no charity from this or any other country. They would have money themselves to lend or donate to the needy.

Kansas Emigration.

Gov. St. John estimates that 16,000 colored refugees have arrived in Kansas since last April; they are still coming at the rate of about 200 weekly, and he looks for many thousands to arrive during the present year. As a class, these refugees have been sober, industrious and well behaved, but 12,000 of them have had to be helped to employment and homes by the relief association, which is now very short of funds, though it has from 300 to 500 people to feed daily. The governor, however, would prefer that the older states, instead of sending supplies to the refugees, should open their doors and give work to these colored people, where they could at least earn bread and clothes. It is becoming a question with charitable people whether the support of these unfortunate is not merely a premium for more to come for the same charity. The problem of how to dispose of these people, who have yet to become self-supporting, is one to vex the wisest practical philanthropists.

It is Strong and Loud for Grant.

The Delegates Instructed to Vote as a Unit.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 4.—The republican state convention met at noon, and was called to order by Chairman Hooten, of the state central committee. S. H. Miller, of Mercer, moved that Russell Ervett be appointed temporary chairman. Gen. Albright moved to substitute the name of Geo. V. Lawrence. The vote resulted, Ervett, 153; Lawrence, 92—a victory for the Grant people.

It was decided that a committee of one from each senatorial district be appointed on resolutions, and committees on contested seats and permanent organization were also appointed.
Mr. Cessna offered a resolution that a committee of nine be appointed to report, subject to the approval of the convention, a list of delegates with their alternates, to the Chicago convention, and a list of electors. After consulting with the delegations from the various districts, Mr. Stewart offered the following as an amendment:
Resolved, That a committee of one from each congressional district be appointed, whose duty it shall be to report to the convention the names of four delegates at-large to the national convention and two electors at-large, and also a list of district delegates to the national convention, who are to be chosen by the delegates from the respective districts, including in their report the names of those persons who have already been chosen delegates from their respective districts by the action of the people thereof.

Both resolutions, however, were withdrawn, and the convention took a recess for an hour.
Upon reassembling, the committee on contested seats made a report which was adopted.
Mr. Cessna's resolution was introduced, and Mr. Stewart at once moved to amend it as indicated before the recess. Mr. Stewart spoke earnestly in favor of his amendment, basing his argument on the fact, as he put it, that the convention had no more right to nominate delegates to the Chicago convention than it had to select congressmen to represent the people of each district.

Mr. Stewart's amendment was lost—100 to 150, and the resolution as originally offered was adopted.
The following was then introduced by Mr. Herr:
Resolved, That the delegates elected to the republican national convention from this state are hereby instructed to support for president the nomination of Gen. U. S. Grant, and to vote as a unit on all questions that come before the convention.

Mr. Storrs, of Erassford, offered the following amendment:
Resolved, That while we pledge ourselves to support the republican party, we see no good reason for abandoning the position taken by the party in our own and other states in 1876, of opposition to a third presidential term, and we hereby endorse and reaffirm the resolution passed by our state convention held in this city in 1876, upon this question.

Senator Herr argued in favor of his resolution. He thought Gen. Grant was the proper and only man who should get the nomination, and concluded his remarks with an appeal to all to support him.
Gen. Albright replied he believed Gen. Grant was sincere in his undertakings, had done great service, both civil and military, but he did not think he was the only man who could lead the republican party to victory. He did not believe there was any danger to the country in a third term, but he believed Washburne, Sherman or Blaine could carry the suffrages of the people. He did not believe in instructing the delegates to Chicago for any man.

The resolution was further opposed by General Koonitz, and Messrs. Darlington of Chester, Harvey of Clinton, and Wolfe of Union, while Moreland of Alleghany and Bingham of Philadelphia favored it. The speeches of the anti-Grant people were all from a Blaine point of view, and no other names besides Grant and Blaine were mentioned at all, except in the remarks of Mr. Albright.

Stone, after arguing strongly in favor of his amendment, withdrew it, and Mr. Strake offered another, to wit: To strike out U. S. Grant and insert James G. Blaine. On a vote by yeas and nays Strake's amendment was lost—95 to 154, several of the Blaine people voting against it, on the ground that it was not proper to instruct the delegation for any one.

The question then recurred on the original resolution, or rather that part of it which instructed the Chicago delegates to vote for Grant, again, the yeas and nays were ordered, and showed a vote of 133 in favor of and 113 against. The second portion of the resolution instructing the delegation to vote as a unit was then adopted by a viva voce vote.

A. B. Olmsted was made permanent Chairman. Nominations for Auditor-General being in order, the names of John A. Lemon and J. A. M. Passmore were placed before the committee, and a recess was taken until 7:30.

Upon reassembling, the yeas and nays were called on the nomination for Auditor General, and Lemon was declared the choice of the Convention—158 to 93. The nomination was made unanimous.
The committee to name delegates to the Chicago Convention and to name Presidential Electors, made a report, which was adopted. The following are the Delegates-at-Large: Matthew S. Quay, James McManes, Linn Bartholomew, Christopher L. McGee, Alter-nates—Gen. D. S. Elliott, J. Hay Brown, Henry Buck and Samuel M. Jackson; Electors at-Large—Edmund A. Benson and Henry W. Oliver.
Hon. Henry Grease was unanimously selected for Judge of the Supreme Court.

The state committee is empowered to replace any elector on the ticket who may be found to be legally disqualified with another.
After appointing a state committee, the convention adjourned sine die.

New York, Feb. 4.—A special to the Evening Post from Harrisburg says that Senator Cameron was about the hotel all night endeavoring to arrange a compromise, but his effort has been of no avail, except in a few individual cases. Cameron insists on carrying out his original plan of instructing the delegation to vote as a unit and to vote for Grant. Through his lieutenants this morning Cameron freely makes the threat that if the Blaine men go on with their fight in the convention, not a Blaine man will be allowed in the Chicago delegation. The Blaine folks make a counter threat that in that event they will go back to their districts and elect delegates by the popular vote of the party and appeal directly to the Chicago convention for recognition. They say this would destroy the moral force of Cameron's packed delegation.

New York, Feb. 4.—New York is holding its breath to-day, that every word uttered at Harrisburg may be heard and every sign noted.
The Herald, in giving $100,000 to the relief of the distress in Ireland, says "The multitudes of people who are starving are relatives of our own citizens, and it should be a disgrace to look on coldly while they perish by the most piteous of all deaths." It engages to see that this $100,000 and every dollar added thereto goes to the relief of actual want.

Bishop Southgate writes to Rev. Dr. Cowley, imprisoned in the Tombs on a charge of cruel treatment of children in the Shepherd's Fold, that he trusts "there is esprit de corps enough among the clergy to save you from being struck down without a hearing." Cowley tramps along the corridor with other prisoners during their exercising hour with the case of a veteran convict.

LUCAN, Ont., Feb. 4.—About twelve o'clock last night masked men entered the dwelling of the somewhat notorious Donnelly family and murdered the father, mother, one son and a girl—a niece. A boy named Connor, the only other inmate, took refuge under a bed and escaped. The band then set fire to the house, which, together with the murdered bodies, was totally consumed. Another son, residing about three miles from the homestead, was called to his door—about the same hour and shot dead. The township is wild with excitement.

New York, Feb. 4.—Returns by counties from Ireland show 312,370 persons slowly starving, and the outlook for the coming months is gloomier than the prediction has yet painted.—Local efforts are becoming feeble, and the people look to the world for succor. The Herald opens the Irish relief fund with a contribution of $100,000.

Goods Marked in Plain Figures.

ALL accounts agree that there has been an unusual demand for cheaply made or shoddy boots or shoes. It is a very short-sighted policy to buy or sell such stuff. In using these goods you pay out twice as much money in a year for your boots and shoes, and you never have a pair that fits, because manufacturers of the cheap grades give no attention to the fit of their work. We trust that people who buy shoddy work will turn over a new leaf in this matter. We practice true economy by making quality the first consideration of our purchase of boots and shoes. At the popular Boot and Shoe House of L. L. Ferriss you can get prime, solid boots and shoes. All the popular Boots and Shoes for as little money as you can buy cheaper grades elsewhere and serviceable Boots and Shoes for as little money as you can buy cheaper grades elsewhere. His goods are made from the choicest materials, over improved styles of lasts, graded in size and width to fit the human foot properly—and no shoddy nor deception there. Mr. Ferriss does a one-price cash business, and can afford to sell very low. You can find the largest assortment in the city of strictly good goods at Ferriss' New Shoe Store, 13 East Main street, being just across the street from his old store and on the east of Millikin's Bank.
